Trinidad State—Future Planning

As many of you know, Trinidad State has conducted a thorough review of its physical facilities to identify and prioritize campus renovation needs. This major undertaking has led to the creation of a Facilities Master Plan (FMP), which offers a blueprint for projects and campus improvements the College will prioritize over the next ten years.

Trinidad State will celebrate its 100th anniversary in 2025. In anticipation, the College identified five significant initiatives.

James Lockett Creates 2nd Scholarship

James O. Lockett first decided to attend Trinidad State while in high school, as an Upward Bound student in Springfield, Ohio. A pre-college preparatory program, Upward Bound provides academic skills for students from first-generation and low-income families. James attended Upward Bound at Wittenberg University.

“We were strongly encouraged to further our education—which always made sense to me,” James said. Read More

Society of 1925—Our Enduring Legacies

"TSJC was a gift that has continued to enhance our lives since we enrolled over 50 years ago! The Monthly Partner's Program is our way of giving back."

Best Option for a Legacy Gift?

If you're considering creating a legacy gift to benefit future students at Trinidad State, a great place to start is with a traditional retirement account.

The path to securing our retirement is well-marked. We invest using a traditional IRA or workplace account. Our funds grow, tax-deferred—often for decades. Eventually, these assets will support us during our retirement years. Read More
