"We all pay month-by-month

In the spring of 1964, I had completed my first year at Trinidad State majoring in Law Enforcement Technology and was preparing to go to work at Central City Police Department for the summer. The Director of the cadet program notified me I had been selected along with five other cadets to assist with a program that involved a group of foreign dignitaries and their wives. Read More

GOV. MORLEY SIGNED TRINIDAD JUNIOR COLLEGE BILL TODAY

SIGNED BILL WITH PEN OF REP. RALPH WEINBROER

The Trinidad Junior College bill which passed the house Friday morning was signed by Governor Morley at 9:30 this morning, the governor using the pen of Representative Ralph Weinbroer who piloted the bill to its final passage in the house. This is the bill originally introduced in the senate by Senator Sam Freudenthal.

This bill provides for the establishment of a junior college in Trinidad and carries an appropriation of $2500 for improvement of a site to be donated. The bill was one of two junior college bills passed and held over until the last hours of the run-over session of the legislature. Representatives Weinbroer and Martinez were most active in achieving the success of the bill in its final rounds.

Denver, April 20.—Governor Morley signed six senate bills this morning, including the two measures for the establishment of junior colleges at Trinidad and Grand Junction. These two bills provided appropriations of $2,500 each for improving the college sites. The other bills signed were as follows: The measure appropriating $15,000 for improving a strip of land for the state teacher's college at Greeley.

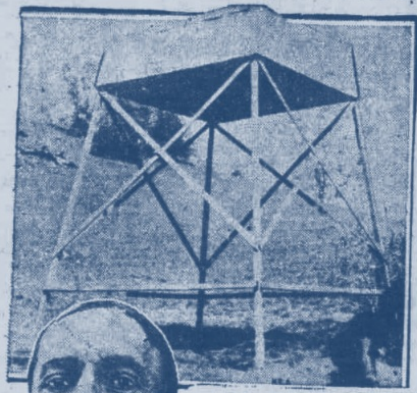

The measure permitting county commissioners of counties having more than 10,000 population to accept patients paying for services in county hospitals. The bill appropriating $32,700 for the Colorado national Guard flying field in Den-in Pueblo. The bill appropriating $2,300 for payment of salaries of certain employees of the recent general assembly.

Denver, April 20.—Fears that armory drills of the Colorado national guard might have to be curtailed thru lack of sufficient funds were dispelled this morning when word was received by the guard headquarters that $191,122 has been apportioned to Colorado by the war department for this purpose during the fiscal year 1925.
