

Crystal Ferrendelli Memorial Nursing Scholarship

Growing up on a southern Colorado farm gave Crystal Ferrendelli plenty of opportunities to nurture her innate compassion. Whenever a stray animal needed help, Crystal was there—and this early instinct quickly developed into a commitment she would carry into her adult life.

"We all pay month-by-month to pay down our mortgages. In a similar way, we can donate to Trinidad State month-by-month. Over time, it grows—making an impact that might not be possible with an occasional

In 1953, Charles “Choo- Choo” Gladney arrived on the Trinidad State campus as a new football recruit from Beloit, WI. Along with Frank Clarke, Tarzan Honor, and several others, Gladney would help deliver the 1953 Empire Conference championship. This team would follow-up their undefeated 1953 season with another Conference championship in 1954, finishing #2 in the nation.

Strategic Planning Update

The Colorado Community College System (CCCS) recently visited Trinidad State to share conversations with local business and education leaders, community members, students, faculty, and staff. CCCS has embarked upon a “listening tour” that will inform its planning for a 2025-2030 statewide strategic plan. With input from community stakeholders, this plan will be developed to best serve our state’s diverse communities, including Trinidad and southern Colorado. Read More

Balancing Family and Philanthropy

Prioritizing our family and loved ones is a key estate planning goal for many people. We embrace these financial responsibilities to our loved ones, hoping to provide generously for those we care about most.

For some, creating a legacy gift for Trinidad State also might sound good, but we’re not sure. We might like the idea of giving back, but never in ways that would put our loved ones at risk. We need to prioritize appropriately. Read More
