THE SMALL ART OF BIG QUESTIONS: ZINE WORKSHOP

Berg 301 Time: 3:30pm - 5:00pm

Philosophy is a practice of serious and playful wonder - in the midst of everyday life. Zines are mini art booklets to express your ideas and sparks of insights. Let's bring art-making and philosophy together with markers, pencils, paper, scribbles and doodles and see what happens! Thinkers and makers of all levels are welcome. Facilitator: Susanne van der Meer
Susanne is a certified Philosophical Practitioner, mixed-media artist, and resident of Trinidad.

STUDENT ARTIST LECTURE: RYLEE BACA

Berg Little Theater 105 Time: 4:00pm - 5:00pm

Rylee Baca is a student artist with experience with several mediums. In this lecture she will be reviewing her most recent series using prompts to explore personal experience through a variety of media. She will also share tips and experience for those looking to start their own personal series.

TSC TALENT SHOW & OPEN MIC

Join the TSC Arts faculty for a fun, low-pressure open mic! The performance opportunity is open to students, faculty, and staff. Sign ups begin in Room 105 at noon on the day of the event.

THE FLAMING LIPS' ZAIREEKA PRODUCTION

Berg Little Theater 105 Time: 8:00pm - 9:00pm

The Flaming Lips' 1997 experimental album Zaireeka has been called a masterpiece of experimental music. Comprised of four separate recordings intended to be played together on separate stereo systems, this work discusses themes of futurism, technology, and dissonance—in music but also in society. Created to encourage group listening and collaboration, this presentation of the Flaming Lips' Zaireeka is produced by students in THE116 Technical Theatre, under the direction of Dr. Christopher Smith.
